

BSL-3 Training/Transboundary Animal Diseases Summer Program

June 5-16, 2022

MINI-SYMPOSIUM ON JUNE 16, 2022

LOCATION: BRI AUDITORIUM

Seats are limited please email kcortes@vet.k-state.edu to RSVP

Zoom link <https://ksu.zoom.us/j/95548806758>

Meeting ID: 955 4880 6758

Dial by your location:

+1 346 248 7799 US (Houston); +1 669 900 6833 US (San Jose); +1 253 215 8782 US (Tacoma)
+1 312 626 6799 US (Chicago); +1 646 876 9923 US (New York); +1 301 715 8592 US (Washington DC)

THURSDAY, June 16

Hybrid Meeting: ZOOM and BRI auditorium (30 min presentation +5 min discussion)

8:30 am – 8:40 am	Introduction: Dr. Juergen Richt - Regents and University Distinguished Professor and Director of CEEZAD/ CEZID and Dr. Marty Vanier – Director of the National Agricultural Biosecurity Center
8:40 am - 9:15 am	Dr. Alfonso Clavijo – Director, USDA National Bio and Agro-Defense Facility, Manhattan, KS, USA  “National Bio and Agro Defense Facility”
9:15 am - 9:50 am	Dr. Jessica Spengler - Research Veterinary Medical Officer, Viral Special Pathogens Branch, CDC, Atlanta, GA, USA  “Viral hemorrhagic fevers: public health interventions informed by high-containment research”
9:50 am – 10:25 am	Dr. Klaus Osterrieder - Dean and Professor, Jockey Club College of Veterinary Medicine and Life Sciences, Hong Kong  “Generation of modified-live COVID-19 vaccines”
10:25 am - 10:40 am	Break
10:40 am- 11:15 am	Dr. Livio Heath - Research Team Manager, Agricultural Research Council, Onderstepoort, South Africa  “Managing endemic transboundary animal diseases in southern Africa”
11:15 am - 11:50 am	Dr. Manuel Borca- Research Microbiologist, USDA Foreign Animal Disease Research, Plum Island, NY, USA  “Status of development of ASFV live attenuated vaccines at the Plum Island Animal Disease Center”
11:50 am - 12:00 pm	General questions/comments
12::00 pm	End of Meeting